

Media Advisory

---

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

File Number: Weekly Update

For the week of March 1st - March 7th, Queen Charlotte RCMP responded to 25 calls for service.

10-116 - On March 1st RCMP received a complaint of a stolen bike. A red woman's mountain bike was stolen in the 200blk of 2nd ave.

10-121 - On March 2nd RCMP received a criminal harassment complaint in Skidegate and are investigating

10-123 - On March 3rd RCMP received a complaint of a downrigger theft. A suspect stole an electric downrigger and several cannonballs from a boat moored at the Queen Charlotte dock. Anyone with information should call the Queen Charlotte RCMP or Crimestoppers.

10-124 - On March 3rd RCMP received another complaint of theft. A suspect stole an electric downrigger and several cannonballs from a boat moored at the Queen Charlotte dock. Anyone with information should call the Queen Charlotte RCMP or Crimestoppers.

10-125 - On March 3rd RCMP received a complaint of uttering threats. A Queen Charlotte male was arrested and released to appear in court at a later date.

10-127 - On March 4th RCMP investigated a complaint of a stolen Ipod. The Ipod had been left inside a parked, unlocked vehicle

10-130 - On March 5th RCMP received a complaint of people coming to the complainant's door with religious literature

10-133 - On March 5th, RCMP received a complaint of uttering threats between two individuals in a business relationship. Police are investigating

10-136 - On March 6th RCMP received a complaint of criminal harassment in Tlell.

10-138 - On March 7th RCMP received a complaint of someone operating a quad on 2nd Ave in QCC, and not wearing a helmet.

10-139 - On March 7th at 1150pm RCMP received a complaint of overdue fishermen. Two males had gone out fishing and not returned. Search and rescue was activated to search on March 8th. The fishermen walked out of the bush prior to SAR mobilization and are o.k.

(R.W. KNAPTON), Sgt.
Queen Charlotte RCMP

