

Media Advisory

---

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

File Number: Weekly Update

In the week from 2010-05-03 to 2010-05-09, Queen Charlotte RCMP responded to 22 calls for service.

10-257 - On May 3rd, RCMP received a complaint of theft of pallet's from a business in Skidegate. The suspect was contacted and the pallets returned.

10-264 - On May 5th RCMP received a complaint of a possible fraud in Queen Charlotte. A local business received a bill from a yellow pages company. The bill was crafted similarly to those sent out by Telus for their yellow pages.

10-269 - On May 6th, at 2215hrs, RCMP responded to a complaint of an attempted suicide in Skidegate

10-270 - On May 7th at 1630hrs, RCMP received a complaint of a theft from a business on Causeway St in Queen Charlotte.

10-271 - On May 7th at 1930hrs, RCMP received a complaint of an intoxicated male in the 3100 block of Oceanview Dr.

10-272 - On May 7th at 1940hrs, RCMP received a complainat about a dog in Sandspit. No animal control bylaw currently exists in Sandspit.

10-273 - On May 7th at 2100hrs, RCMP received a complaint of a disturbance in Sandspit.

10-274 - On May 8th, at 0730hrs, RCMP responded to a complaint of a neighbourhood dispute over a well in Sandspit

10-275 - On May 8th at 1340hrs, RCMP received a complaint of ill dogs on Oceanview Dr. The owner had concerns that the dogs had been feed a poison.

(R.W. KNAPTON), Sgt.
Queen Charlotte RCMP

