

Media Advisory

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

File Number: Queen Charlotte RCMP weekly media update 2011-11-14

During the week from November 7th to November 13th, 2011, Queen Charlotte RCMP responded to 21 calls for service. Some of these were:

- On November 7th, 2011, Queen Charlotte RCMP responded to a break & enter in the 300blk of Oceanview Dr. The house had been broken into between Nov 2 - 4 with a couch being stolen. Anyone with information on this can call RCMP or crimestoppers.
- On November 8th at 1045hrs, Queen Charlotte RCMP received a complaint of theft at the Co-op in Skidegate. Police are still investigating.
- On November 8th, Queen Charlotte RCMP had two rods and reels turned in that had been found at Hayden Turner Campground. The owners can attend to the detachment to recover same.
- On November 10th at 2220hrs, Queen Charlotte RCMP received a complaint of a fight outside Howlers Pub. The combatants were gone upon police arrival.
- On November 12th at 2200hrs, Queen Charlotte RCMP responded to a complaint of youths "toilet papering" a house and vehicle in the 800 blk of 2nd ave in Queen Charlotte.
- On November 13th at 1110hrs, Queen Charlotte RCMP responded to a complaint of a hit & run on Rennel Sound Rd. While the owner was hunting, an unknown suspect hit and damaged a pickup truck. Anyone with information can contact Queen Charlotte RCMP or Crimestoppers.
- On November 13th at 1500hrs, Queen Charlotte RCMP had a wallet turned in that had been found. It was returned to the owner.
- On November 13th at 1730hrs, Queen Charlotte RCMP received several calls of a house being moved unsafely. Police located a house being moved up 2nd Ave, known as "Hippy Hill". The house was being moved by a forklift, a skidder and several trucks tied together. The matter is being investigated, and charges being forwarded, by the regional commercial vehicle inspector.

(R.W. KNAPTON), Sgt.
Detachment Commander
Queen Charlotte RCMP

